At a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pearson, Friday evening, the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jean, and Mr. Benjamin Hampton was announced. The marriage will take place in the early fall.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the dinner on Tuesday given by Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Weaver in honor of Miss Eva Lambert. The table decorations were beautiful. The center piece was formed of American Beauties, and in each of the candelabra lighted candles were placed. Those present, besides the honored guest, were Miss Kate Thorpe, Miss Nellie Goodrich, Messrs. Edward Le Compie, Dan B. Shields and James H. Hance.

The following teachers leave for their respective homes in the East tomorrow: Prof. James Hance, Miss Alice Fisher, Miss G. Whitmore, Mrs. C. A. Blocher and Mrs. G. H. Ryan will accompany the party as far as Kansas City.

A charmingly appointed luncheon was given on Friday by Mrs. John Thomson in honor of the young ladies who were hostesses at the dancing party given in May. The center of the table was placed around a mirror, surrounded with roses and holding a beautiful bowl of the same fragrant flowers. At each place was also found an American Beauty. Mrs. Thompson was assisted by Miss Minnie Kessel. Those present were Miss Jean Pearson, Miss Maud Gray, Miss Nell Goodrich, Miss Genevieve Wilson, Miss Eva Lambert, Miss Kate Thorpe and Miss Minnie Kessel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Osika were the recipients of a jolly surprise given by the members of Silver Leaf Rebekah lodge No. 3 on Wednesday evening. Delicious refreshments were served and a royal time had by the guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weist, Mr. and Mrs. P. Osika, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roseveare, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lindorff, Mr. and Mrs. J. Flannigan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Joffe, Mr. and Mrs. Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. J. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. William Kneale, Misses Blanche Weist, Annadram McEwen, mother and sister, Mrs. Ida Addison, Harvey Weist, Park Addison, James Howell, Clarence Weist, Stanley Osika, Miss Flannigan and Irene Jefford.

The following young folks graduated from the eighth grade at the Dewey theater Friday evening. The Misses Betta Allen, Bess Barnicott, May Burns, Kate Campbell, Ethel Clark, Pearl Crowther, Blanche Deighton, Burnel Durkin, Irma Evans, Gertrude Furter, Cleo Gitch, Laura Huddy, Maudie Wilson, Vera Lowe, May McCormack, Lottie Almer, Theresia Quinn, Emma Rasband, Rhea Riley, Olive Robinson, Lizzie Shields, Crescent Smith, Anna Stromness, Edna Sutton, Dena Thomson, Emma Trotman, Messrs. F. Aubry, R. Carpenter, W. Deason, A. Green, E. Harrington, G. Huddy, G. Jurgeson, C. Lockhart, W. McDonald, J. Mitchell, William Perry, W. Quinn, E. Stine and E. Williams.

An informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Osika Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Osika. Those present besides the young couple were: Messrs. and Madames Stanton, Reley, H. Weist, P. Osika, Misses Anna Osika, Blanche Weist, Harvey Weist, Stanley Osika and William Condrie.

Mrs. Agnes Towey entertained a small company of friends informally at a Dutch supper after the concert Thursday evening. The guests present were the Misses Katherine Lawrence, Mae Ballie, Agnes Harrington, Carrie Sutton, Minnie Cunningham, Messrs. Thomas Waldon and P. H. Towey.

The special meeting of the Woman's Athenaeum held at the home of Mrs. W. L. Middour Monday proved most interesting, with Mrs. L. E. Hubbard as leader. The regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Heath tomorrow, May 30, at the usual time.

The Park City Military band, assisted by the Cosgrove Concert orchestra of Chicago, will give a promenade concert and ball at Maple hall Wednesday evening, June 1.

The L. D. S. Sunday-school will give a dancing matinee at Maple hall tomorrow, May 30.
